Fairbanks – Area grow better kids Family Friendly Workplace Awards

Do you know a business or an organization that is “family friendly?”
Nominate it for a Fairbanks-Area Family Friendly Workplace Award.

The Fairbanks North Star Borough’s Early Childhood Development Commission (FNSB ECDC) is recognizing local employers who help their employees balance work and family responsibilities. Not only does a “family friendly” philosophy create a more productive work environment and greater employee loyalty and morale, it also contributes to families raising children that become better students and citizens.
