

FAIRBANKS TRAILS CHALLENGE, SUMMER 2017

How many trails can you explore this summer? Take the Fairbanks Trails Challenge!

Scattered along the trails in the Fairbanks North Star Borough are ten Fairbanks Trails Challenge signs. Challenge yourself, your friends and family to find as many as you can! This year's Summer Challenge will take place from June 10th—September 20th and is free for anyone who wants to participate. No registration required: just find, photograph and share! Check out this list of trails: www.fnsb.us/pr/documents/2017SummerTrailsList.pdf. Explore them on your own schedule or join us on one of the weekly Trail Walks offered on Monday evenings, starting promptly at 6PM-8PM., June 19th—August 21st. Follow the FNSB Parks & Rec Facebook page or call the Parks and Rec office for weekly Trail Walks event details.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1. FIND the sign that says "Fairbanks Trails Challenge," located somewhere along the trail, roughly within 1 mile of the trailhead. Keep an eye out for orange reflective markers!
- 2. Snap a PHOTO of yourself with the sign in the background to prove you made it!
- 3. SHARE your "selfie" photo on Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram by typing "#FNSBtrails" in your post, or post your picture on our FNSB Parks & Rec Facebook page, or email parks@fnsb.us your photos.

AWARDS:

If you can prove you made it to ALL TEN Summer Challenge Trails you will earn the elusive "Trailblazer Award" and be placed in a drawing for awesome prizes! Prizes drawn Sept. 30th.

IMPORTANT:

While exploring any trails remember to travel within your ability, keep to allowable uses, keep furry friends under control, and always respect nearby private property.

For more information call the Parks and Rec office at 459-1070 or email park@fnsb.us.
